PUBLIC LAW 116-02-A

CHAPTER 1

REPATRIATION

Moorish American nationality is transmitted by filiation (father and mother) or birth in Amexem/America (interchangeably used in this chapter with United States of America Republic or U.S.A.R.). However, it gives the right to Moorish American (Moslems) Men and Women to transmit citizenship to their children and for Men to their foreign wives.

SECTION 1. THE ACT OF REPATRIATION

(a) This State, United States of America Republic (U.S.A.R.), shall have the power of repatriation; the repatriation of coloreds, negroes, blacks, afro-Americans and African-Americans back to the divine creed of their forefathers; back to Statehood, back to the Constitutional fold of this free National Government; back to being Moors, Moorish Americans, Moorish Nationals, and National Citizens.

(b) All Nationals and Citizens of the United States of America Republic, upon taking the Oath of Allegiance to the United States of America Republic, shall be pardoned of all past crimes of colorable laws. The United States, or several states, shall not use such criminal records against a National or Citizen of the United States of America Republic. No pardon shall be given for capital crimes, murder, rape or treason.

(c) Expatriation shall be voluntary. No National or Citizen of this State shall be forced to expatriate by the State. Expatriation as well as Repatriation is an Unalienable Right of each National or Citizen.

(d) This Amendment includes all Moorish Americans who have proclaimed their Nationality before or after the adoption of this Constitution. No paperwork is required to be filed, as a “proclamation of Nationality” begins when Nationality is written or orally stated by the Claimant; and may be verified (by phone) or in writing by the Nation concerned.

SECTION 2. NATIONALITY BY FILIATION

A child born of a Moorish American father, or a child born of a Moorish American mother is a Moorish American citizen.

SECTION 3. NATIONALITY BY THE EFFECT OF THE LAW

An Asiatic child born in United States of America Republic to unknown parents is a Moorish American citizen.

Any child born in United States of America Republic of foreign parents, who themselves were born in United States of America Republic, can become a Moorish American citizen provided that they make request to that effect. In the case of people originating from a country whose predominant religion is Islamism (Islam), only the father needs to be born in United States of America Republic. The Minister of Justice or other officer as determined by the President, must approve of the decision for people who acquire nationality by these means.

People who have obtained Moorish American nationality by the effect of the law can claim the same rights as a Moorish American having nationality of origin (by filiation).

Any foreign man or woman married to a Moorish American citizen, with regular and continuous residence in United States of America Republic for at least 5 years, can apply for citizenship.

SECTION 4. ADOPTION OF CITIZENSHIP

Excluding exceptional cases, a foreigner applying for the Moorish American citizenship must fulfill the following conditions:

1. Have regular and continuous residence in America during the 5 years preceding the application.
2. Be of Legal age at the time of the application.
3. Be mentally and physically fit.
4. Have a record of good conduct and reputation in addition to not being convicted of crime or any offense punishable by U.S.A.R. Law.
5. Have sufficient knowledge of the English language.
6. Be able to provide for themselves.

SECTION 5. DUAL CITIZENSHIP

A person having a dual citizenship does not lose his Moorish American nationality. However, that may cause problems for people who also have nationality of countries that do not allow their nationals to have multiple citizenship.

SECTION 6. NATIONALS AND CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA REPUBLIC

“The following persons shall be Nationals and citizens of the United States of America Republic at birth:

(a) A person born in the United States of America Republic, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof;

(b) A person born in the United States of America Republic to one of its’ Nationals or citizens who is subject to the jurisdiction thereof; Provided, That the conferring of citizenship under this subsection shall not in any manner or otherwise affect the right of such person to tribal or other property;

(c) A person born outside of the United States of America Republic and its outlying islands of parents both of whom are citizens of the United States of America Republic and one of whom has had a residence in the United States of America Republic or one of its outlying islands, prior to the birth of such person;

(d) A person born outside of the United States of America Republic and its outlying islands of parents one of whom is a citizen of the United States of America Republic who has been physically present in the United States of America Republic or one of its outlying islands for a continuous period of one year prior to the birth of such person, and the other of whom is a national, but not a citizen of the United States of America Republic;

(e) A person born in an outlying island of the United States of America Republic parents one of whom is a citizen of the United States of America Republic, who has been physically present in the United States of America Republic or one of its outlying islands for a continuous period of one year at any time prior to the birth of such person;

(f) A person of unknown parentage found in the United States of America Republic while under the age of five years, until shown or proven, prior to his attaining the age of twenty-one years, not to have been born in the United States of America Republic;

(g) A person born outside the geographical limits of the United States of America Republic and its outlying islands, of parents whereas the mother of whom is an alien, and the father a citizen of the United States of America Republic who, prior to the birth of such person, was physically present in the United States of America Republic or its outlying islands for a period or periods totaling not less than five years, at least two of which were after attaining the age of fourteen years: Provided, That any periods of honorable service in the armed forces of the United States of America Republic, or periods of employment with the United States of America Republic Government or with an international organization by such citizen parent, or any periods during which such citizen parent is physically present abroad as the dependent un-obligated (un-married) son or daughter and a member of the household of a person:

- (A) honorably serving with the military forces of the United States of America Republic, or
- (B) employed by the United States of America Republic Government or an international organization,

Subsection (g)A and (g)B may be included in order to satisfy the physical-presence requirement of this paragraph.

SECTION 7. CITIZENS BUT NOT NATIONALS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA REPUBLIC AT BIRTH:

Unless otherwise provided in subsection 2 of this title, the following shall be Citizens, but not Nationals of the United States of America Republic at birth:

- (1) A person of unknown parentage found in an outlying island of the United States of America Republic while under the age of five years, until shown or proven, prior to his attaining the age of twenty-one years, not to have been born in such outlying island; and
- (2) A person born outside the United States of America Republic and its outlying islands of parents whereas the father of whom is an alien, and the mother a national of the United States of America Republic who, prior to the birth of such person, was physically present in the United States of America Republic or its outlying possessions for a period or periods totaling not less than seven years in any continuous period of ten years—
 - (A) during which the national parent was not outside the United States of America Republic or its outlying possessions for a continuous period of more than one year, and
 - (B) at least five years of which were after attaining the age of fourteen years.

The proviso of SECTION 2(g) of this title shall apply to the national parent under this paragraph in the same manner as it applies to the citizen parent under that section.

DEFINITIONS

Geographical Limits of the United States of America Republic: The Maritime and Territorial Jurisdiction of the United States of America Republic as defined in Section 951(a) in Public Law 111-40.

International Organization:

1. For the purposes of this subchapter, the term “international organization” means a public international organization in which the United States of America Republic participates pursuant to any treaty or under the authority of any Act of the Continental Congress Assembled authorizing such participation or making an appropriation for such participation, and which shall have been designated by the President through appropriate Presidential order as being entitled to enjoy the privileges, exemptions, and immunities provided in this subchapter. The President shall be authorized, in the light of the functions performed by any such international organization, by appropriate Executive order to withhold or withdraw from any such organization or its officers or employees any of the privileges, exemptions, and immunities provided for in this subchapter (including the amendments made by this subchapter) or to condition or limit the enjoyment by any such organization or its officers or employees of any such privilege, exemption, or immunity. The President shall be authorized, if in his judgment such action should be justified by reason of the abuse by an international organization or its officers and employees of the privileges, exemptions, and immunities provided in this subchapter or for any other reason, at any time to revoke the designation of any international organization under this section, whereupon the international organization in question shall cease to be classed as an international organization for the purposes of this subchapter.
2. An institution drawing membership from at least three states, having activities in several states, and whose members are held together by a formal agreement. The Union of International Associations, a coordinating body, differentiates between the more than 250 international governmental organizations (IGOs), which have been established by intergovernmental agreements and whose members are states, and the approximately 6,000 nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), whose members are associations or individuals.

Outlying Island(s): An island or group of islands of America located in the North Western or South Western shores of America; including Atlantis Islands.
